VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 40. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 15, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription,

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postpaid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle-wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Mrs. Charles E. Bassett, whose counter suit for divorce against her husband was opened in Omaha, Neb., yesterday was on the witness stand for four hours during the afternoon. Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt, pastor of the Noble Street Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, who was a corespondent in the Washington divorce case, sat beside Mrs. Bassett yesterday and comforted her.

Mrs. Bassett made a first-class witness but had several clashes with the attorneys for her husband, at one time accusing the leading counsel of having a temper like her husband. Mrs. Bassett told of cruelties alleged to have been practiced upon her by her husband, beginning two days after their marriage and while they were on their bridal tour. He on that trip became jealous of one of his wife's bridesmaids, and gave her, she said, a terrible cursing. Then she told of Mr. Bassett coming to dinner and throwing all of the dishes against the wall, breaking them all, because one of the children was crying. In telling of Bassett's refusal to go after a physician when their little girl lay dying, Mrs. Bassett broke down and cried. When she told of the death of her father, ex-Senator Rice, of Arkansas, she again broke down.

Her story was replete with threats, made by her husband, to kill her, of whipping her with a blacksnake whip, of forcibly placing medicine in her mouth, or paying negro servants to watch her and other instances of cruelty. The names of Speaker Cannon and his daughter, Senator Fairchild, Justice Brewer and other Washington notables were introduced when Mrs. Bassett told of the attempts of herself and husband to have Rev. Hunt made chaplain of the Senate in 1903, when Edward Everett Hale received that appointment.

A remarkable feature of yesterday's evidence was the admission of Mrs. Bassett's attorneys that the last child born to Mrs. Bassett was born 11 months after Mr. and Mrs. Bassett had separated. This is the child of which Mr. Bassett is not asking the custody, on the ground that Rev. Hunt, and not himself, is the father.

Mrs. Bassett's case received a hard blow yesterday morning when the court admitted to evidence a number of depositions taken in Washington and New York which the plaintiff had attempted to keep out of evidence because of alleged irregularities in their transmission to Omaha.

An affidavit of Morgan Bradford, a detective from Washington, was read, showing that he had shadowed Charles Bassett to a house in Washington where Bassett remained more than an hour. Bradford admitted, under cross-examination, that he had been engaged to do the shadowing by Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt and that Rev. Mr. Hunt paid him for the work.

Woman Charged with Embezzlement.

Miss Helen Dixon is an occupant of a cell in the Bloomington, Ill., jail awaiting trial on the charge of embezzlement. She was a leading church worker, looked up to and respected by all, and entrusted with large sums of money raised for religious purposes.

Wandering somewhere in the country is her brother, who, by his continual pleas for money, first drew from her savings and later the church funds entrusted to her care. "He will pay them back if they will give me time," is the girl's lament. Her faith in him is unshaken, though others have ceased to believe that she ever again will see the money she advanced to him.

Miss Dixon is accused of embezzling $1,300 belonging to the Gleaners' Society of the Second Christian Church, at Bloomington, of which she had been treasurer for two years. The money entrusted to her care had been raised during four years of laborious effort on the part of the members of the society. When the church proposed to purchase a new $2,200 pipe organ the Gleaners' Society agreed to raise one-half the cost. Since that time the society has been giving periodical entertainments. There are 100 members in the society, all young women, and the money earned has represented an incalculable effort. The aggregate secured by these various means was about $1,800.

Recently the organ was installed and the Gleaners' Society was called upon to pay the agreed portion. Two weeks ago Miss Dixon was asked to turn over the money, but she amazed the members by saying that she did not have a cent in her possession. She also was out of employment. She was coaxed and threatened, but refused to make any statement as to the disposition of the money other than it was gone. After two weeks' effort it was decided as a last resort to place her under arrest. When arrested Wednesday night Miss Dixon told of sending the money to her brother, who never returned it. Her parents are dead.

A Sweeping Decision.

If the decision handed down Wednesday by the Circuit Court, Judge S. R. Artman, at Lebanon, Ind., holding that the Legislature has no more legal right to license the sale of intoxicating liquors than it has to license gambling, is upheld by the higher courts, it will close every saloon in the State.

Judge Artman held that the retail liquor business has no legal standing, on the ground that it is not one of the inherent common law rights of citizenship, since the business is danger us to public health, morals and safety.

The Legislature, Judge Artman, declared, cannot make lawful for a price that which is unlawful because it contravenes the fundamental principle of government. In other words, the Legislature cannot legalize a menace to public health, nor can the State, under the guise of a police regulation looking to the public morals, license the saloon business.

A wealth of opinions from the higher courts bearing on these contentions was quoted in the decision. Some of the decisions quoted showed that both federal and State courts had ruled that no form of gambling could be legalized, since it is a peril to the welfare of society. In this connection Judge Artman pointed out that many of the same courts had held that the sale of intoxicants was a menace to the welfare of the community, and that, therefore, if it was right to declare gambling unlawful, it also was right to declare liquor selling unlawful.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

ARBUCKLES' ARIOSA COFFEE
GAVE THEM AMBITION AND THE POWER THAT TURNED THE WILDERNESS INTO THE GREATEST RICHEST COUNTRY THE SUN SHINES UPON
SOLD IN SEALED PACKAGES ONLY FOR YOUR PROTECTION

"For over thirty years," writes a gentleman in Los Angeles, "I have used Arbuckles' Coffee. Many times my family has tried other coffee only to come back to our old reliable, unchangeable Arbuckles.' No other coffee has this uniform never failing aroma, I care not at what price. I have often wished I could tell you this." Many other people have the same opinion. Arbuckles' was the first roasted packaged coffee, and its sales exceed all the others put together. That it costs you less is due simply to our coffee business being so much greater than any competitors, in fact, it is larger than the next four largest firms in the world combined. We naturally can and actually do give better coffee in ARIOSA than anyone else can give for the price; Being the standard article it is sold at the narrowest margin of profit.

Some grocers will try to sell you instead loose coffee which the roaster is ashamed to sell in a package bearing his name.

Don't take it, neither the looks nor the price indicate its cup quality. No matter where you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA, or what you pay for it, it's the same old uniform Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee.

If your grocer will not supply, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 15, 1907.

IN ORDER to guard against mistrials growing out of the illness or other incapacitation of jurors, the New York World suggests such amendment of the jury law as would permit the selection (in cases like the Thaw trial, likely to be long continued) of two supplementary jurors who could be sworn like the twelve, and like them could listen to the testimony. In case of need one of them could be substituted for one of the original jurors, and the trial go on without prejudice to either the prosecution or defense. The frequency of mistrials growing out of default in the jury-box makes this suggestion well worth consideration.

MERCILESS criticism of men and methods and scathing arraignments of many prominent officers for the way in which they mismanaged troops during the great campaigns in the Russo-Japanese war are the leading features in Gen. Kuropatkin's history of that conflict, which at last has become accessible. From what Gen. Kuropatkin says the wonder is that the war had not ended long before it did. He lays the whole blame for the defeat at Mukden upon Gen. Kaulbars' disobedience of orders.

WITH tears in his eyes, James T. Smith, of Philadelphia, made the following statement yesterday when he learned that, by order of Coroner Jermon, the English bull terrier which killed Mrs. Lena V. Smith had been asphyxiated:

"I am really more sorry now for "Don" than I am for my wife. It was all her fault. I am positive that the dog would never have harmed her had she not treated him cruelly."

The order for asphyxiation should have extended to the husband.

JUSTICE GREENBAUM, of New York, has issued an order directing the American Ice Company to produce, for the discovery and inspection of the people of the State of New York, all contracts made by the company with a long list of firms and individuals. The order has quite naturally caused a commotion, not only in the ice trust but in other combines.

THE announcement of the candidacy for Congress of Circuit Judge Nicol has started speculation as to his probable successor on the bench, as it was stated in the Gazette on Tuesday that he will probably tender his resignation to Gov. Swanson as soon as he begins an active canvass of the district. It is understood that there are already a number of prospective candidates for the positions.

THE Senate on Wednesday night, at its first night session of the year, capped the day's record by passing 991 pension bills in one hour and six minutes—15 a minute—Senator McCumber being the only Senator on the floor. And there are those who claim that the United States Senate is the most august and deliberative legislative body in the world!

Washington, Feb. 15.

President Roosevelt this morning informed his friends in the Senate that he would call an extra session of Congress to pass an immigration law, if present objection to the conference report on that measure, which contains his provision for exclusion of Japanese labor, prevents the enactment of such legislation.

President Roosevelt will hold his third and probably final conference this afternoon with Mayor Schmitz and the San Francisco school board. The members of the visiting delegation express their hearty approval of the amendment to the immigration bill reported by the House and Senate conferees whereby Japanese coolies not provided with passports may not enter continental United States, especially in view of the assurances transmitted through the State Department that the Japanese government will continue its policy of refusing passports to laborers desiring to land on the Pacific coast. It is understood, also, that the Japanese government will raise no objection to the provision which will prevent coolies proceeding from Hawaii to the coast States.

The seventeenth witness to be examined by the Senate military committee in the investigation of the Brownsville affair was heard today. Eight of them have been discharged and there are twenty-nine waiting to give their testimony. After Quartermaster Sergeant McMurray had named Henry Arvin, the cook, as the man who, with an axe, had broken open the gun racks of company C, Sergeant D. W. O. Brawner, of that company was called.

Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry, Assistant Chief of Staff, has been assigned to command the troops in Cuba, vice-Brigadier General Theodore Wint, recalled. Although the impression is sought to be conveyed that this change is on account of the alleged ill-health of General Wint, it is understood that the situation in Cuba is becoming more critical.

By a record vote of six to five the House committee on ways and means today defeated the Williams bill providing for reciprocal free trade in coal between Canada and the United States. The democrats, with Representative McCall (rep. Mass.) voted for the bill.

According to the officials at the Navy Department there is no truth in the rumor that Rear Admiral R. D Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, is in poor health and has determined to ask for retirement.

The House committee on ways and means today tabled the Randell (dem. Tex.) resolution calling upon the President for the report of the German tariff commission.

A deadlock is threatened in the Senate over the consequence report on the immigration bill, which contains the administrations provision for the exclusion of the Japanese coolie laborers. Several Southern senators, who objected to action on the report yesterday, are strongly opposed to that portion of the bill seeking to strengthen the alien contract law. They prevented action at the last session. While disclaiming any intention of filibustering, it is hinted that they will attempt to prevent final action this Congress. This places in jeopardy the administrations plan for settling the San Francisco school controversy. Those having the conference report in charge, having expressed their fears to the President. They have suggested the withdrawal from the report of the provision affecting the Japanese situation and have pointed to the advisability of enacting the legislation in the form of a joint resolution. The President has informed his friends in Congress that he will insist upon the provision being retained in the conference report and has announced to them that if such legislation fails through continued opposition, he will call an extra session of Congress for the purpose of passing an immigrat on law.

All railroads entering this city are to be compelled to comply with the local anti-smoke laws, according to a bill reported today by the Senate committee on the District of Columbia During the hearings on the subject the representatives of the railroads declared that it would be impossible for them to comply without electrifying their roads and that to do so would cost $5,000 000.

Senator La Follette's bill providing for a valuation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of all the railroads of the country of their property will probably be reported favorably by the Senate committee on Interstate Commerce at a special meeting on Tuesday called for that purpose.

The members of House committee on public lands today capitulated to the demands of the President that the public land law be so amended as to provide for the leasing instead of sale of the government coal lands.

George E Lorenz has been released from the Moundsville prison: "There is not a tingle of guilt on my conscience. I was a victim of a mistrial. It was simply in the air to convict.

Following a conference between Secretary of War Taft, Major Gen. Bell, Chief of Staff of the army and the President, this morning, it was announced at the War Department that plans are being drawn up for the establishment of a military loss at defense post at Guantanamo, Cuba.

SENATE.

Dillingham and Lodge, who have charge of the report upon the floor of the immigration bill decided to press its consideration, in compliance with the expressed wishes of the President. As soon as they got it before the Senate Mr. Bacon renewed his opposition.

Senator Dryden, of New Jersey, presented the credentials of his successor, F. O. Briggs, and to introduce the Senator elect to a number of his colleagues, after a contest that broke him in health.

The Senator from Georgia declared that it was proposed to deprive the South of its present rights to secure needed alien labor.

Mr. Gallinger admitted that he would not support the bill if it stood alone.

HOUSE.

Mr. Burton opened the fight on the floor of the House today, against the appropriation for another big battleship, as provided for in the naval appropriation bill.

Debate was limited to two hours, making a vote come at 3 o'clock.

"Why this race for larger, experimental battleships," he inquired. "The common sense of nations must sooner or later limit this contest. What we most need is not more battleships, cruisers or sub-marines, but greater efficiency in the management and control of those we have."

Representative Sulzer, of New York, offered an amendment that Congress authorize the construction of a ship larger and faster than any now afloat to be called the Perry.

News of the Day.

The Clearing House Association yesterday, by a vote of 18 to 2, decided that there is no necessity for an all-night bank in Baltimore.

Worked up into a state of extreme nervousness by the insulting remark of a well-dressed stranger who addressed her in a Market street car, Philadelphia, last night, Mrs. Taney Shallcross, of Norristown, died after running into Broad Street Station.

A dispatch from Pine Bluff, Ark., says that notwithstanding the rumors in regard to the loss of life as a result of a fire which Wednesday night destroyed ninety cottages and residences. three hotels, the Carr Memorial Church, and fully 200 barns and outhouses, entailing a loss of $200,000, only two persons lost their lives. Nearly 1,000 persons, including 150 families, are homeless.

Eleven men are under arrest in Chicago in connection with the murder of a girl known only as Paulina, who was on Wednesday night found dead in a yard in west Fourteenth street. The police claim that they have proof that the girl was drugged with ammonia, which had been placed in beer, and was then attacked by the men. Four of the men are said to have confessed.

The effort in the Senate yesterday to force consideration of the conference report on the immigration bill, which includes the Japanese amendment, led to a mild filibuster and determined opposition by Senators from southern States because of new matter that affects immigration to the South. Consideration of the report went over until today. Consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill was commenced. The House spent the entire day in consideration of the naval appropriation bill.

Representative Wharton, of Illinois, introduced a resolution in the House yesterday authorizing the President to exclude from the mails any and all publications "containing the revolting details" of the Thaw case and other cases of similar nature. Representative Wharton denounced Stanford White in language stronger than any that has appeared in print or that has fallen from the lips of even Delmas. He also seeks to protect the good name of the women of America, who do not seem to be involved in the trial

John Turner, colored, yesterday afternoon made an attempt to assault Mrs. Thomas Kenney, of Brunswick, Md. Her husband, unknown to the negro, was in the house at the time, and, springing downstairs in response to her screams, frightened off the negro. Kenney pursued the negro with a shotgun, caught him, after a chase of a mile, and tying his hands behind his back with a handkerchief, held him a prisoner until Deputy Sheriff Emory Nelson and another officer arrived and took charge of him. John Turner narrowly escaped lynching. He is now locked up in the jail at Frederick.

By a vote of 111 to 84, yesterday, the House of Representatives in committee of the whole, amended the naval appropriation bill by providing for an expenditure of $100,000 for an iron and brass foundry at the Washington navy yard. This, as explained by some members of the House during debate on the propositions, means the ultimate expenditure of $6,000 000 or $7,000,000 for government factories, in which the government will make all its own ordnance. The provision also means that when the foundry is completed 400 additional men will be employed at the navy yard in Washington.

The statement that President Castro has been successfully operated upon for an infected gland in the groin was conveyed to the people of Caracas Wednesday while the city was in the midst of celebrating the first day of the carnival. This news was spread broad-cast in an official bulletin. Dr. Revenga, who performed the operation, was assisted by five other Venezuelan doctors. Dr. Revenga said yesterday that his patient had passed a good night and was without fever. It is semi-officially announced that Gen. Badillo, chief of staff to Gen. Antonio Paredes, the revolutionary leader, who landed recently at the mouth of the Orinoco river, and two other insurgent officers had been captured at Uracos. The government predicts that the force under Paredes soon will be taken prisoners.

The Negro Suffrage Case.

The negro suffrage case—Brickhouse versus Brooks and Jessup—having for its object the annulment of the Constitution of Virginia, which was partly argued before Judge Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, sitting in the Eastern district of Virginia, in Richmond on Wednesday, was called in continuance when court opened yesterday morning.

Almost the entire session of the day was taken up by Attorney-General Anderson and Frank Christian, counsel for the State election registrars, in answering the statements of Attorney Wise. First taking up the point raised by Wise to the effect that inasmuch as the members of the recent constitutional convention had not taken the oath their acts were null and void, the Attorney-General pointed to the fact that at no previous convention had the oath been taken.

In the convention of 1776, often called the revolutionary convention, the body was clothed with all the power of the people and had the power to establish a monarchy or a republic, yet no oath was required of its members. In 1829, while oaths were required of all State officers and all citizens, no oath was required of the members of the convention of that year. Attorney-General Anderson considered this especially important, inasmuch as the oath was waived by such men as John Marshall, James Madison, John Tyler, James Monroe, Philip Barbour, Chapman Johnson and other illustrious members of that body. The constitution of 1850-51, the Attorney-General then showed, required no oath of its members; nor did the convention of 1860, when the State was at the crucial point in its history; nor did the members of the constitution of 1869 make oath.

Turning then to the question of the validity of the constitution of 1902, Attorney-General Anderson said that it had been accepted and ratified by the people and sworn to by every executive and judicial officer in the State. This was done, he said, several months before the alleged grievance was caused, when the document promulgated by the convention of 1902 was as much the Constitution of Virginia as it is today.

Fight With a Burglar.

Slashed and cut by a burglar he had found in a store and whom he was taking to a patrol box, Henry Jacobs, a private watchman in Philadelphia, pulled his revolver and, levelling the barrel at his prisoner's head, pulled the trigger. Jacobs meant to kill. The burglar cringed before the pistol and turned his head. The bullet missed his brain by a hair's breadth and tore off his ear. Faint from loss of blood, for the veins of his arm were severed, the plucky watchman fired three shots in the air to summon assistance and fell fainting to the pavement, holding his prisoner in a death grip. Struggle as best he could the latter could not break the hold of the unconscious man. So were watchman and prisoner found by Heinrichs, a policeman of the Tenderloin station, when he came running to the scene of the struggle. The patrol wagon made a hurry trip to the Hahnemann Hospital, where the physicians pronounced the condition of Jacobs as serious. He had lost a great quantity of blood and an examination showed that his wrist had been cut to the bone three-quarters way around. The stiletto with which the cutting was done was found on the prisoner. It was as keen as a razor, The burglar had his ear completely blown off. His face was badly burned by powder. His wounds were dressed and then he was taken to the Eleventh and Winter streets police station. He was recognized as an old offender.

Lake, at Happy Creek, Warren county, and also with a murderous assault on Mr. Lake and Superintendent Lackey, of the Happy Creek mines. King answered with bullets from his revolver, and one of the bullets struck Mr. Lake a glancing blow, slightly wounding him. Lake was standing by a stove and the pipe above his head was riddled with bullets. After a desperate fight King was overpowered and disarmed. He was turned over to the authorities and taken to jail at Berryville to await the action of the grand jury. He has been employed in the Happy Creek mines and has a wife and several children.

Attacked by Pulajanes.

A dispatch from Manila says that Pulajanes attacked and burned two towns in the province of Occidental Negroes Wednesday and killed six members of the constabularly.

Two American teachers—W. J. Bassetter and Walter J. L. Ise—are reported to be missing.

No cause is known for the sudden uprising. Raids were made within a radius of 10 miles and schools were first attacked and burned in both instances.

The provence of Occidental Negroes has been free from disturbance for four years. It is believed that the raiders were mountaineers venting their hereditary enmity against the coast towns.

The entire archipelago is stirred by the pending political campaign. There is an exodus of politicians from Manila, as the election law requires a residence in the provinces for candidates for the assembly.

The government party has reorganized as the national progressives. Dominador Gomez and some prominent Filipinos have formed the union national party out of several immediate independent organizations. The union nationals recognizes the present inability of the Filipinos to carry on self-government, but ask that a definite policy be declared toward the Philippines, having in view future absolute independence. Gomez scored a victory in the special election for Governor of Cavite.

The campaign is active in every province.

A Mass of Blunders

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Feb. 15.—Jesse Ruffin and Mosie Hill, the negroes who robbed the postoffice at Triggles, Prince Edward county, and burned Postmaster Grubb alive, were hanged at Farmville today in the presence of 150 people. The rope broke twice under the weight of Hill, horrifying the witnesses. Hill confessed to six murders.

Hill weighed 275 pounds. When he had been revived after the rope broke he walked calmly and unassisted back to the scaffold, on which Ruffin had already died.

The trap was sprung a second time, and again the rope broke. He died on the ground in terrible agony before he could be carried to the trap for a third time.

Eddyville, Ky., Feb. 15.—Going to his death with a song on his lips and a joke for each of the attendants, Ben Huffaker, negro, was hanged in the penitentiary here today. He killed a fellow convict.

Russellville, Ky., Feb. 15.—W. R. Fletcher and Guy Lyons, negroes, were hanged today for assaulting Mary Gladder. Fletcher died instantly. Lyons lived eight minutes. Lyons had already attempted suicide by stabbing and was kept alive until the hour for execution with the greatest difficulty.

Barboursville, Ky., Feb. 15.—Jesse Elizgerald, a negro, was hanged this morning. He asked that the black cap be not adjusted and was hanged with his sight free. His expression was so shocking that several spectators fainted. He was executed for the murder of the wife of a miner.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 15.—Should the defense in the case of Harry K. Thaw ask for a commission to determine the sanity of the slayer of Stanford White, on next Monday, as has been intimated may be done, there will be no opposition on the part of the attorneys for the State.

This was the gist of a statement coming from the District Attorney's office today, and while prosecutor Jerome is not quoted in it, there is the best of reason for believing that he inspired it.

New York, Feb. 15—It is today taken for granted that unless Juror Bolton has an actual physical break-down, there will be no mistrial in the Thaw case. Mrs. Bolton's funeral has been fixed for tomorrow afternoon. It is believed that by Monday Bolton will be fit to continue his duty to the State.

Without any mistrial, however, the proceedings are likely to be cut short. Jerome's experts are inclining more and more to the belief that Thaw is really insane. Jerome may, therefore, decide to demand a commission in lunacy early next week. Should the commission formally declare Thaw insane, he will be sent to Matteawan without further ado.

All along Thaw has cowered between the twin fears of Sing Sing and the chair and Matteawan, and the strict and perhaps life-long discipline under which the criminally insane are placed.

Thaw's attorneys had to recognize that an insanity plea was the only thing which could save Thaw's life. In introducing this plea, however, they have endeavered to leave a gap in the testimony by which the jury, while being convinced that Thaw was insane when he killed White, would have no justification in declaring that Thaw is insane now. It has been noticed that the experts for the defense have not examined Thaw since December. They have sworn that he was mad in August and September and better, though still mad, in December. The intimation was that Thaw had improved and might now be well. But they could not testify he was well, because they had not seen him.

This plan of campaign required the greatest possible finesse. It had already begun to look as if the jury would never send Thaw to the chair Delmas was leaving them without sufficient evidence to send him to Matteawan.

Jerome's reported intention to summon a lunacy commission is to balk this plan. If he takes this action it will be on the theory that if Thaw was insane enough last summer to escape the chair, he is insane enough to go to Matteawan.

This move by Jerome would put Thaw's defenders in a very critical position. They have been bringing in evidence that Thaw was a paranoiac, both by inheritance and development, and that the disease last summer had reached a point where it amounted to homicidal mania. Then Dr. Evans has testified that Thaw has an abnormal head, an abnormal heart and other attributes of a crazy person. They have told about Thaw's insane aunt and have read a lot of incoherent love letters to prove unsoundness of mind. They have a will ready to introduce to further clinch the proof of dementia.

Now, should a commission in lunacy take this same evidence and decide on the strength of it, that Thaw is now insane, no power on earth could keep him out of Matteawan. And while Thaw may be better than he was last summer, confinement with crazy people might be expected to aggravate his complaint so that no board of examining physicians would be able, at a later date, to pronounce him cured. The outcome of such a situation would mean life imprisonment. Thaw dreads life imprisonment more than he does the electric chair, and he is demanding from his attorneys that they save him from such a fate at all costs.

Steamer Collided with Wharf.

New York, Feb. 15.—A misunderstanding of signals was the cause of an accident to the Anchor Line steamer Astoria, five days overdue, from Glasgow, on arriving at her dock here, today. While being warped into her pier, the big steamer suddenly crashed against he dock causing a large portion of the roof to fall. A custom inspector and five assistants and sixty stevedores on the dock, were buried under the debris, but no one was seriously hurt. A panic started among the 280 passengers on the steamer, but it was quickly checked. Instead of backing, as signalled, the engineer went ahead.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 15.—The stock market in the first hour was irregular, but with a demonstration of strength in the later trading caused an almost uniform upward movement in a majority of the active issues. The most significant trading noted was heavy purchases of Union Pacific on which that stock advanced from 175 to about 176.

Tore Gown from Rival.

New York, Feb. 15.—Ripping the gown from a rival beauty almost in sight of the audience at Daly's, Miss Valeska Surratt, of "The Belle of Mayfair," defended her title last night to the possession of the "finest figure" in New York. This, at least, is the way Miss Jeanette Horton, the victim, tells the story. Other members of "The Belle of Mayfair" company corroborate her account. Miss Surratt has as yet made no reply to her rival's story. Miss Surratt poses as a "Gibson Girl" in a living picture group near the end of the piece. Miss Horton, with seven other show girls, fill in the background. Miss Surratt wears a black velvet princess gown, literally molded to her exquisite figure. To insure its effect, she stipulates that there shall be no other gown like it on the stage. She accused Miss Horton of breaking this rule. Miss Horton denies it. True, her gown was a princess, but it was yellow and quite different in ornamentation from Miss Surratt's. The latter hardly waited for the end of the picture to punish the offender. She and Miss Horton were still in sight of part of the audience when she seized the show girl by the throat, half choked her and tore her gown to ribbons. Those in the audience who could see nearly went wild with excitement and interest.

The Missing Treasurer.

New Britain, Conn., Feb. 15.—Treasurer Wm. F. Walker of the Savings Bank, of New Britain, who less than a week ago slipped out of town with securities of the bank believed to represent a large part of the shortage of $565,000 in his possession, is now being hunted as a common criminal, though for five days he was mourned as a missing man, possibly demented.

The bank directors have shown a statement showing assets of $6,600,000, over and above the shortage, and liabilities of $6,460,000, leaving a surplus $150,000, so that the panic has subsided and every effort is now being bent to catch the missing Treasurer, who up to the time of his disappearance had borne an exemplary reputation. The total shortage in the funds of the Connecticut Baptist Convention of which Walker was Treasurer, has been found to be $40,000 or thereabouts. To date no other fund are known to be missing. The Savings Bank has also decided to offer a reward for Walker's capture, the amount to be made known sometime today. All Walker's property in this city has been attached by the Savings Bank.

American Pilgrims Received by the Pope

Rome, Feb. 15.—Church circles today are still discussing the unusual occurrence at the Vatican yesterday during the reception by Pope Pius X. of a delegation of American pilgrims headed by Bishop Keily, of Savannah, and Bishop Shanley, of Fargo. An unprecedented scene of enthusiasm followed the address. The pilgrims assured the Pontiff that he has the sympathy of America in his struggle with France. Bishop Keiley told him the hearts of ten million American Catholics unconditionally supported his attitude. In reply, the Pope said: "Your filial phrases, I realize, are the true echo of generous American sentiment. This is no surprise to me, for always have I received the most consoling balsam from America. I believe America is the future land of promise. Long live America." It was in response to this declaration that the pilgrims indulged in a demonstration which has seldom if ever been equalled in Vatican history.

Revolutionists Captured.

Caracas, Feb. 15.—General Paredes, who recently landed in Bermudez state with twenty followers and collected a small revolutionary army, has been captured. Two of his officers, including General Badillo, chief of staff to Paredes, are also said to be in the hands of government troops. Government officials declare the capture of Paredes will end the embryonic revolutions. It is known, however, that several hundred men had pledged themselves to support his cause and that many had already gathered in his camp.

An official bulletin posted yesterday while the people were celebrating the first day of the carnival contained the information that President Castro had successfully undergone an operation on an infected gland in the groin, and is doing well.

Legislative Scandal Threatened.

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 15.—A legislative scandal is threatened as a result of charges alleged to have been made before Governor Woodruff at a secret hearing yesterday by W. T. Harman, a republican state central committeeman, of New Britain, and City Tax Collector Howard H. Steele, of New Britain, to the effect that State Tax Commissioner Frank E. Heale, of Windsor Locks, had promised to get the office of commissioner of Hartford county for Mr. Steel for $1,200. Healey strenuously denied the charges. He is said to have worked for another candidate than Steele in the lobby.

Accusations Against Larchmont Captain

Providence, R. I., Feb. 15.—With fresh accusations of cowardice and neglect piling up against the officers and crew of the wrecked Joy liner Larchmont, and the official examination of Captain Haley, of the schooner Harry Knowlton, in progress at New London, every effort is being made here to identify the bodies of the twenty-four wreck victims brought here from Block Island, on the tug Roger Williams, last night.

From Block Island comes a bitter arraignment by Miss Sadie Golub, of Boston, a Larchmont survivor, of the conduct of the liner's officers. Miss Golub has but just recovered sufficiently to tell her story, but is too ill for removal from Block Island.

Miss Golub says she was among the first to reach the hurricane deck of the Larchmont after the collision and finding Captain McVay and Purser Young in the first life boat, begged for a place. Her answer, she asserts, was a violent push which sent her reeling backward on the icy deck. The captain's boat put off, she says, with only ten on board, of whom six were members of the crew, though it could have held twenty, at least.

When the Larchmont sank, Miss Golub found herself, with others, clinging to a fragment of the deck, from which she was rescued twelve hours later by the schooner Elsie. Most of her companions were dead.

Unfounded Report.

Bedford City, Va. Feb. 15.—The report of a race riot at Thaxton, this county, in which several negroes were reported to have been shot, is without foundation. In fact, there was a little difficulty between a Swede and a fireman at one of the railroad construction camps in which the Swede was shot in the finger, but there was no further trouble. The negroes played no part whatever and all is quiet at this time.

School Teachers Found.

Manila, Feb. 15.—W. K. Bachelder and Walter J Ise, the American school teachers yesterday reported killed in an attack by pulajanes, on two towns in Occidental Negros, have been found. Both men had been missing since the raids and this led to the report of their murder. Both are unhurt.

Insurance on Thaw.

London, Feb. 15.—Lloyds has just written a policy on the life of Harry K. Thaw, now on trial in New York for the murder of Stanford White, agreeing to pay a total loss if the young millionaire is executed. The amount of the policy is kept secret.

Miscegenation Legal.

It has been discovered that it is possible under Virginia laws for white and negroes to intermarry. An old law permits a person of one-fourth negro blood or less to marry a white person. The law was passed in 1866, during the days of reconstruction, and has never been amended.

The law was upheld by the Supreme Court in 1877, when a man named Sturat, white, married a mulatto woman named McPherson. The lower court held that the marriage was illegal, because the woman was a negress, but the Supreme Court, after investigation, decided that the negro blood in the woman's veins was less than one-fourth, and that the marriage was legal. Three out of the five of the Supreme Court judges concurred in the decision. A quadroon under this law has the legal status of a white person.

The newly elected Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, S. J. Quinn, of Fredericksburg, has made the following appointments: Grand Chaplain, Rev. George H Ray; Grand Pursuivant, Jas. A. Pamplin; Grand Tiler, W. C. Wilkinson; Grand Steward, William Krouse.

The meeting lasted until midnight, and business of importance to Masons throughout the State was transacted.

Blumenfeld - Kaufmann Wedding.

The spirit of St. Valentine's day was fittingly and fully observed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Katz, where Miss Rena Kaufmann was married to Mr. Raymond Blumenfeld, of Washington, at high noon. The bride was charmingly a tired in a traveling suit of biscuit colored broadcloth with hat in contrasting shades of brown and tan relieved with a touch of heliotrope. Against the improvised altar the wedding party which in addition to the bride and groom, was augmented by Mrs. A. Katz and Mr. S. J. Kaufmann standing for the former, Mr. and Mrs. M. Blumenfeld for the later, stood out vividly and made the marriage service a solemnly beautiful occasion which will long be remembered in the minds of those, who witnessed it. Rev. L. Stern, of Washington, performed the ceremony. The party then sat down to a wedding breakfast, served by Messrs. Rammel Bros. in the elegantly decorated parlors, the guests being limited to the immediate relatives. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kaufmann, of Greensboro, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Emile Berliner, Mr. and Mrs. M. Blumenfeld, Miss Suggenheimer Mr. and Mrs. A. Kleeblatt and Mrs. H. Kaufmann, of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Blumenfeld left for an extended northern trip and will be at home after their return at 117 south Fairfax street.

Boys Fined.

George Massey, Walter Robey and Charles Lloyd, three youths, more or less under the influence of liquor, were arrested last night by Officer Ferguson for disorderly conduct. They were at King and Pitt streets when the officer appeared and the offenders ran. Officer Ferguson kept close in their wake and after following them for some time took the youths in custody in the northeastern section of the city. When asked where they obtained liquor, the youngsters said a soldier furnished it. They subsequently acknowledged that they bought beer in a saloon in the neighborhood of the place where the officer arrested them. Massey and Robey were fined $2.50 each, and Lloyd was released with an admonition. There is much complaint on the part of parents at the violations of law by some saloon-keepers in furnishing liquor to minors, and the authorities are endeavoring to procure the necessary proof against the offenders in order that the prescribed penalty may be imposed.

Accidents to Southern Trains.

Four freight cars were demolished as the result of a wreck early yesterday morning in the yards of the Southern Railway Company in Danville. Passenger train No. 12, while coming into the city, crashed into a string of freight cars that were being shifted from the main line to the siding. Most of the passengers were asleep and otherwise than being jarred by the crash no one was injured.

Madison Jones, 12 years old, discovering that a portion of a 500-foot trestle had been burned near Sparks Gap, on the Southern Railway, 20 miles from Birmingham, Ala., yesterday, left his wagon in the road, and, taking off his red sweater, flagged an approaching passenger train from Birmingham. The train came to a halt, and the passengers upon discovering the situation made up a purse for the boy. There was a curve not far from the trestle, and the boy went to this curve to flag the train, which carried about 100 passengers.

The River.

The steamer Northumberland, from Baltimore, reached this city about 5 o'clock yesterday evening. She left on her return trip at 6:30 this morning. Her officers report a thrilling experience in the ice near Indian Head Thursday night. The Northumberland became wedged in a floe, and was unable to forge through it or to back out. Later the floe started to move, carrying the steamer with it. The captain, fearing the Northumberland would be run aground, dropped the anchor, but the movement of the floe was so strong that the boat dragged the anchor. At this juncture a government tugboat on her way to Indian Head went to the Northumberland's assistance and "cut her out," after which the steamer proceeded to this city.

The Norfolk steamer arrived up this morning but a few minutes late. She reported conditions in the river practically unchanged, heavy gorges still remaining at certain points in the river.

New Street Lights.

The Alexandria Electric Company shortly after sundown yesterday evening turned on the current for the street lamps. With but two or three exceptions new lamps supplanted the old throughout the city. The lights were kept burning until nearly sunrise. They were brilliant and of a bluish hue. While apparently not as strong as was anticipated, it is expected that after a few days they will reach the candle-power stipulated. When the success of the new plant shall have been assured, that belonging to the city will pass out of existence. The following are the present employees at the works: L. S. Kirby, electrician; John Hepburn, engineer; Bradley, fireman; W. H. Harrison and Ed. Meeds, trimmers.

Lecture Last Night.

The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum was filled last night with the friends of Alexandria Division, No. 1, A. O. H., to hear the lecture of Mr. P. J. Haltigan, of Washington, editor of the National Hibernian, on "The Irish in the American Revolution." It was a rare treat to all who heard it and thoroughly enjoyed, as was evidenced by the repeated applause. The lecturer, who has a national reputation, was assisted by Mr. W. P. Maxwell, of Washington, and Mr. Forrest Birrell, of this city, who sang "The Star Spangled Banner" at the close.

A country dance will be given at Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street, tonight, by Perseverance Tent of Rechabites.

Congressional Candidates.

A letter received at this office today from Louisa county says that R. Lindsay Gordon, jr., a widely known lawyer of Louisa county, and a member of the late constitutional convention, will be a candidate for the democratic nomination in the Eighth congressional district, to succeed the late John F. Rixey. Mr. Gordon is a man of marked ability and considerable popularity, and his friends in Louisa believe that the honor will fall to his lot when the final test of strength is made.

A dispatch from Warrenton says the friends of Judge Charles M. White, of that place, have launched his candidacy for the vacancy in Congress from this district caused by the death of Congressman Rixey. Judge White has a large following of substantial and influential friends throughout the district.

The other avowed candidates in the race are C. C. Carlin and T. H. Ficklin, of Alexandria, Judge Charles E. Nicol, of Prince William, former Speaker John F. Ryan, of Loudoun, and there may be others.

Mr. Ryan has gone actively to work and is most hopeful about his chances for success.

The special election to fill the vacancy will, it is said, not be held until next fall when members of the legislature will also be chosen. Meanwhile, those seeking the position will have ample time to strengthen their respective positions and mingle with their friends.

Chamber of Commerce.

There was a well-attended meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of this city at their rooms, southeast corner of King and Washington streets, last night.

The improvement of upper King street, the river front of the city and other matters were discussed.

A committee yesterday went to Washington for the purpose of impressing upon the river and harbor committee of Congress the importance of improvements in the Potomac opposite this city and a short distance north where a bar has formed in recent years. They saw Senator Daniel and stated their wishes to him. This morning Mr. J. T. Preston, secretary of the board, received a letter from Mr. Daniel who stated that one of the items in the appropriations for rivers and harbors was for a survey of the river at the points mentioned by the Alexandrians. When this shall have been done an appropriation for the improvement of the river front will follow later. It is said that the channel will eventually be made 400 feet wide and be of sufficient depth to float vessels of the draught of second-class battleships.

Sudden Death.

Mamie Wood, who lived in the Braddock House, died suddenly in her room last night. The woman had been moving about as usual yesterday, but after she retired she became suddenly sick, and soon expired. The body was removed this morning to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment, where Dr. Moore, the Coroner, after making an examination, announced that the woman's death resulted from natural causes. The deceased was about 30 years old.

Mamie Wood, also known as Mary Gallahan, at one time lived on Princess street, and at the time of the investigation of the murder of George N. Curtin, was a witness before the Police Court, testifying to the movements of certain parties on the night of Curtin's disappearance.

To Close Business.

As will be seen by their advertisement, the Goodloe Company, northeast corner of King and Pitt streets, has determined to discontinue business in this city. The company will dispose of its stock as speedily as possible regardless of profit. This sale should interest all persons in need of dry goods. The Goodloe Company during the time it has conducted business in this city has enjoyed the confidence of its many patrons, all connected with it being obliging and accomodating.

Basketball.

The Alexandria Athletic Association defeated the Shamrock basketball team last night at their hall on King street by the score of 22 to 17.

The Alexandria Athletic Association basketball team will line up Saturday night against the Belvederes, of Baltimore, champions of Maryland, at their hall on King street at 8:30 o'clock. The Belvederes have not met defeat this season.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Massey and Walter Robey, arrested by Officer Ferguson for drunken and disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Family Theatre.

Tonight at the Family Theatre a portion of the programme will be devoted to amateurs. A number of persons have already sent in their names for tonight, and a lively contest is expected. A handsome prize will be given to the winner. A matinee will be given tomorrow evening at 2:30 o'clock, when a programme especially suitable for children will be rendered.

Another Cold Wave.

The mild and fair weather of yesterday morning was followed in the afternoon by dense cloudiness and later by a brisk and cold northwest wind. The temperature continued to fall during the night, and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury stood at 25°, and ice again covered the river. There was no display of the Aurora Borealis during the night, as had been predicted.

Personal.

Mr. J. T. Sweeney who had been at the Alexandria Hospital for some time, was taken back to his home yesterday evening. Mr. Sweeney continues quite ill.

Miss Osceola Hamersley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Hamersley, celebrated her birthday last night at her home on Cameron street, near Henry, by giving a pink tea. A number of the friends of the young lady were present and a pleasant evening was experienced by all.

Miss Lelia Henderson delightfully entertained a number of her friends last night with a valentine party in honor of Miss Leta Baker, of Alabama, who is visiting her.

Corporation Commission.

The members of the State Corporation Commission who were in this city yesterday met at the Alexandria county courthouse this morning to investigate complaints against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Electric Railway Company. The commissioners, Judge Beverley T. Crump, chairman, and Messrs. Willard and Stuart, made a trip over the road yesterday for the purpose of observing the conditions in person. The complaints as stated yesterday are that the cars are not properly heated, that the schedule is not maintained and that some of the rates are excessive. The court room was crowded this morning when the hearing began. Mr. F. B. Hubble, vice president of the road, was the first witness and explained the workings of the road saying that the company was doing all in their power to accomodate the public.

Death of Mrs. Lee.

Mrs. Thomas Lee, of Alexandria county, died on the 9th instant. The funeral took place from her late home at "Clarington," on the 11th. The services were conducted by Elder George Lewis, Seventh Day Adventist, of Arlington. The pallbearers were cousins of Mrs. Lee. The interment was in the old family cemetery at Lincolnia, Fairfax county. Mrs. Lee was the youngest daughter of Mr. Emory S. Crump, of Lincolnia, Fairfax county. In early life she moved to this city, where she was married and where she lived a short time. She is survived by a husband, one little son and an aged mother and four sisters. Just one month before her death she lost her youngest son. She had been in ill health for three years.

Will Probated.

The will of the late Daniel Henry was admitted to probate in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court today. The deceased directed that a headstone to cost $100 should be placed at his grave and made the following bequests: To Father H. J. Cutler $50, and $100 each to his brother in Ireland and Mrs. Bridget Alexander and the remainder of his estate to Patrick, James, Daniel, Stephen, Annie, Jane and Margaret McCauley. Stephen, Daniel and Margaret McCauley are named as executors.

Mr. LeHew Promoted.

Mr. W. G. LeHew, ticket agent at Alexandria for the Southern Railway, has been promoted to the position of union ticket agent and placed in charge of the Union station and passenger business for all roads using the same. Mr. LeHew has long been a popular attache of the Southern Railway Company, and his many friends and acquaintances will be glad to hear of his promotion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Fred Jones and John Taliaferro, both colored, were arrested today charged with promoting policy.

It was erroneously stated in the Gazette yesterday that the price of a house advertised for sale by Mr. Robert Elliott was $1,400. It should have read $1 450.

Eulogies on the life, character and public services of the late John F. Rixey, of this district, will be held in the House of Representatives at 10 o'clock, Monday, February 25.

The new building of the Mutual Ice Company on the east side of Union street, near Cameron, is nearly completed. A large United States flag was floating from the structure this morning.

Alice, the little daughter of Mr. C. Ashby Sladen, fell down a staircase at a neighbor's house on south St. Asaph street a few days ago and was seriously injured. She was attended by Dr. Moore.

Mr. Frank Cassell, freight agent of the Southern Railway at Warrenton, has resigned. Mr. Beale has been appointed in his place. It is said that the freight receipts at Warrenton, apart from express, mail and passenger fares, is one hundred thousand dollars per year.

Senator Daniel has received assurances that an item would be inserted in the river and harbor bill providing for a survey of the channel opposite Alexandria. Business men of this city urged him to secure this appropriation as the bar throws the water of the Potomac back upon river front property.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Cora Tatsapaugh Hardy took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from St. Paul's Church. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of the church. The Broad Tire Bill.

The "broad tire" bill, which proposes to require every vehicle in the District weighing, with its load, 4,000 pounds or more, to have wheel tires at least four inches in width, and which has been referred to the District of Columbia Commissioners by the District committee of the Senate for a report, was the subject of a spirited hearing before the board of commissioners at the District building yesterday. More than 100 men, representing the Carriage and Wagon Builders' Association, wagon owners and other business and citizens' associations were represented and offered objections to the proposed measure in most vigorous manner. That the requirements would inflict an undue hardship upon the merchants and business men of the District was the chief contention.

G. G. Boteler, of Alexandria county followed the Washington speakers. He said that for twenty-five years he had sold farm wagons in Virginia, and in that period he has not sold as many as five four-inch-tire wagons, and does not believe that in Alexandria and Fairfax counties there are ten four-inch tires. The four-inch-tire is a theory, he asserted, and an impracticable proposition on ordinary roads. If the truckers and farms of the section mentioned put on such tires, the speaker declared, they could not get to Washington with their produce, because of the extra weight.

W. A. Smoot, jr., and A. D Brockett, of the Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria, said that their organization is unanimously opposed to the bill for the reason that it would keep all heavy hauling teams from Alexandria out of the District, and that such legislation would practically construct a Chinese wall around that city, to the exclusion of the traffic that comes from the adjacent counties in the form of truckage and country produce sold in the Washington markets.

J. T. Preston, of Alexandria, said that it had been demonstrated beyond any doubt that an ordinary country farm wagon with a four-inch tire loaded to its capacity coming to Washington would never be able to make one mile's distance over a Virginia mud road in twenty-four hours with all the horses that could be hitched to it.

Phenomenal Atmospheric Disturbance.

A phenomenal atmospheric disturbance occurred at Pittsburg, Pa., at 12:52 yesterday, when, in the midst of an extraordinarily heavy blizzard, several peals of loud thunder were heard and a vivid flash of lightning came from the heavens, causing a magnificent complication of atmospheric conditions and frightening many persons who saw the remarkable occurence.

Maj. Enos Goble Budd, who was among those who trailed General Albert Sidney Johnson to his pursuit of the Mormons, is dead at his home in Morris county, N. J. Maj. one of the contestants in the six days walking match at Madison Square Garden, New York.—This is a woman ironing—that is, she is ironing when she is not running to and from the stove changing irons—but most of her time is spent doing the latter.

THE FORGOTTEN DEAD.

There Are Few English Tombstones Over Two Centuries Old.

Some years ago there was a correspondence in the papers, the main argument being that there were very few tombstones in the open—that is, outside of a church—which could show a record of over 200 years. Doubtless there are many tombstones of a far greater age, but most of these are now undecipherable from the perishing material used or have sunk deep into the earth, in which case there can be small doubt as to the inscriptions having become obliterated.

The oldest record I have come across was at Godshill churchyard, near Ventnor, where the visitor can see legibly inscribed, "Annie Garde, 1592," but probably some of your readers may know of tombstones bearing an earlier date. The most surprising number of old tombstones clustered together are possibly those grouped at Bonchurch, Isle of Wight, these ranging from 1610 to 1702. In all there are seven, having these dates: 1616, 1619, 1620, 1627, 1646, 1687, 1702.

So far—that is, during a three years' search—I have found tombstones of the seventeenth century at Godshill, Bonchurch, Brading and St. Lawrence (Ventnor), in the Isle of Wight; at Wateringbury, in Kent, where there are several in excellent order; at Tonbridge, Bristol, Ipswich, Harwich, Southwold, Colwyn Bay (old parish churchyard), and at Millbrook, near Southampton.

I might note that in all I have so far found only thirty-five tombstones over 200 years of age.—London Standard.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

New York Daily Tribune.

If you want a publication that serves up so much gore and so many thrills in every issue and do not care whether what you read is true or false, it is money thrown away to buy the Tribune. If, however, you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. The Daily Tribune contains special articles on nearly every subject which interests intelligent and clean-minded people, to say nothing of the instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music, art and the drama. Invest $1 and get the Daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sunday Tribune goes a handsome Illustrated Supplement and a Magazine equal to anything sold for ten cents.

COAL AND WOOD.

THERE'S NO COAL

like Aitcheson's coal. Everyone will tell you that it has tested its virtues for either range, furnace or stove. Your coal supply is liable to get short at this season of the year. How about sending us your order—or a sample order for some of our well screened, high grade coal? Once tried you will never use any other.
